Circular No. 1/2014

(PLEASE CIRCULATE TO ALL MEMBERS)

Date: 01.01.2014.

Dear comrades,

NEW YEAR BRINGS NEW HOPES

The year 2013 will be remembered for the anti-corruption movement led by Sri Anna Hazare in the aftermath of countless financial scams rampaging the country and also upsurge of middle class mass movements on various social and women issues. Meddling with banking industry by the party in power at the center, consequent pressure on the employee organizations and uncertainty over wage revision talks continues. We at SBPRA bid goodbye to the bygone year with a lot of satisfaction that we could accomplish our set tasks organizationally especially in the matter of membership growth, setting up teams at all the Zones and sensitizing the retirees of the bank through out the country and most importantly successful conduct of General Body Meeting (All India Central Conference). The New Year appears to be highly promising with the inclusion of retirees' issues in the charter of demands submitted by AIBOC/UFBU for wage revision. At the bank level there is all-round growth promising a healthier balance sheet for the current year. We are hopeful that our claim for recognition by the management will be conceded which will enable us to take up various pending issues with bank soon. We wish all our members, activists, functionaries, well wishers and their families a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

UFBU CALL FOR 48 HOURS STRIKE

We invite attention of our members to strike call given by UFBU on 20th and 21st of January 2014 to press for commencement of meaningful wage talks. It is given to understand that IBA has called UFBU for negotiations on 29th of January. Meanwhile Chief Labour Commissioner has fixed Conciliation Meeting in the matter on 13th January. We request all our functionaries to keep abreast with local AIBOC leaders and guide our members suitably and extend full support to make all programmes of UFBU successful.

With warm greetings.

Yours comradely,

C Gangadhar Yadav
