Circular No.3/2015 (PLEASE CIRCULATE TO ALL MEMBERS/ RETIREES) Date: 25.2.2015

Dear comrades,

UFBU SETTLES WAGE REVISION AMID UNCERTAINTIES RETIREES ISSUES YET TO BE RESOLVED

We are happy to note that UFBU – IBA have finally settled wage revision for banking industry, except for working out some details. We convey our heartiest congratulations to all our in-service comrades on this historic occasion. The reaction and feedback from the cadres as well as organisational stand and response is well reflected in the following Para of Cir 2015/17 dated 23.2. 2015 issued by General Secretary of AIBOC.

“Comrades, though we may be happy, on one hand, on account of uncertainties on major issues coming to an end, but on the other hand, many eyebrows may be raised on the percentage increase agreed upon. We wish to advise that in the present scenario of deteriorating financial results of most of the Banks for the last quarter and likelihood of it still getting worse for the ensuing one, further delay in concluding the talks would not have been favourable for us”.

Now, the lingering question in the mind of all the retirees is as to what will happen to their issues. The answer is, we are hoping that UFBU during the course of working out details in the 90 days period will settle most of retirees’ demands. A detailed circular issued by our apex body AIBAPRC in this context which is self-explanatory is attached herewith for the information of our members/ retirees.

With warm greetings.

Yours comradely,

C Gangadhar Yadav

Comrades, in view of the text of the minutes as reproduced above in short, we like to record our observations as under :-

A) This has been a historic agreement and the leadership of UFBU in general and AIBOC in particular deserve high appreciation. They have kept their morale high and fought the game to the end with highest dose of tenacity. We congratulate the leaders of AIBOC for this historic fight.

B) Since signing of the agreement, the pensioners and retirees throughout the country have been extremely worried and anxious to know what is going to happen to them. A few hundred telephone calls have been received in last 24 hours by the leaders at different parts of the country. The anxiety expressed is of similar nature.

C) The attention of all retirees are drawn to point no. 5 which is underlined. From the text it is clear that there have been certain other issues on which management and associations have already exchanged their views and they have agreed to give a final shape to such discussions and settle the same to the mutual satisfaction of both the parties.

D) In the meeting of the Executive Committee of AIBOC held at Chennai on 12.2.2015, GS, AIBOC has submitted before the members several annexure which are self explanatory. It has been informed that the residual issues for pensioners which will be discussed in the sub-committee of IBA are contained in annexure C. The said annexure contains all the major demands of the pensioners and retirees of the banking sector. There are few other issues which have been mentioned in the charter of demands for retirees but did not find a specific place in annexure C have been pointed out by our organisation to AIBOC and other components of UFBU.

E) We further like to inform you that annexure A (which are issues for serving employees and officers) also contains another item affecting the interest of the pensioners and retirees. One of the important demands that will be coming up under the discussion is that a “comprehensive scheme for pensioners and retirees should be incorporated in the mediclaim policy to be introduced by the bank”.

F) In view of all that has been told in the foregoing paragraphs, our members, activists, leaders and veterans are earnestly requested to keep patience and to have faith in the capabilities of the organisation. We can never claim that we will be bringing the moon from the sky and hand it over piece by piece to our members but we can very reasonably assure that all our efforts will be given to ensure best possible delivery as is possible under the given circumstances.

With best wishes

( S. R. SEN GUPTA )
